Quannapowitt Players 2011–2012 Season

All You Need is Love – a celebration of life A world premier original musical

Conceived and Directed by James G. Girgenti with musical arrangements and direction by Mario Cruz

SEPTEMBER 16, 17, 23, 24, 25, 30 and OCTOBER 1, 7 and 8, 2011

A mother and her son take us through three decades of their lives that created and cemented an everlasting bond between them. Share the joy and pain of first love, the heartbreak of betrayal and the steadfast loyalty of family and friends as they share each other lives through the music of John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr.

Noises Off by Michael Frayn

Directed by Patrick Cleary

NOVEMBER 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, 27 and DECEMBER 2 and 3, 2011

*There are 7 slamming doors, 1 breaking window, 10 trips up and down stairs, 17 false entrances, 73 flubbed lines, 46 missed cues, 22 double entendres, 3 love triangles and a million laughs, all while trying to find a missing plate of sardines!
This wonderful English farce about a terrible English farce is the craziest comedy to ever hit the stage.*

Dracula by Hamilton Deane and John Balderston Based on the Bram Stoker novel

Directed by Donna Corbett

JANUARY 27, 28 and FEBRUARY 3, 4, 5, 10 and 11, 2012

This is the original vampire story! No one can spin a yarn quite like an Irishman, and Bram Stoker did just that when he introduced the chilling Count Dracula to us. The young vampires of the today's twilight cannot compare to this classic adaptation for the stage. There is a gothic setting, a sinister yet sensual bloodthirsty count, his bug eating minion, a young lady he chooses for his queen and those who love her and try to save her from his spell. Full of theatrical special effects Dracula will keep you on the edge of your seat!

The Foreigner by Larry Shue

Directed by Chip Sheeran

MARCH 23, 24, 30, 31 and APRIL 1, 6 and 7, 2012

In this fish-out-of-water farce, a painfully shy Englishman Charlie Baker must spend three days in rural Georgia. When townsfolk start believing he doesn't speak English, he unexpectedly becomes privy to all kinds of secret exchanges among the locals, including a spoiled debutante, a scheming preacher and an ambitious Klansman. Charlie realizes not all is as it seems and he may be the only one who can save the day...but first he'll have to overcome his "language barrier."

The Diary of Anne Frank by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett Newly Adapted by Wendy Kesselman

Directed by Nancy Curran Willis

MAY 18, 19, 20, 24, 25 and JUNE 1 and 2, 2012

Seventy years ago this July, in an effort to escape the Nazi's, Otto Frank led his family up the stairs to the attic that was to be their home for almost two years. The Quannapowitt Players dedicate these performances in remembrance of all those who lost their lives to the Holocaust.

The Diary of Anne Frank captures the claustrophobic realities of the daily existence for a young girl and seven others hiding from the Nazis in an Amsterdam attic. Through their fear, hope, laughter and grief, over two dark years, Anne's voice shines through: "When I write I shake off all my cares. But I want to achieve more than that. I want to be useful and bring enjoyment to all people, even those I've never met. I want to go on living even after my death." Through this powerful adaptation by Wendy Kesselman, Anne's words are reborn for a new generation.
